INTRODUCING J&P CYCLES® 2007 VINTAGE WIND CALENDAR...

ANAMOSA , IA - For Immediate Release- September 22, 2006

J&P Cycles® is proud to announce that our 2007 Vintage Wind Calendar will be available soon! Reserve your copy today! This year's cover is in full color for the first time and features a photo of the record breaking Sears Motorcycle, of Sears, Roebuck and Company, at an exhibition at the Illinois State Fairgrounds in Springfield, IL in 1914.

As in past years, the 12 month calendar is printed on heavy 80 pound Astroparche natural paper that adds to its nostalgic look. The inside photos are black and white and printed using a vintage Pantone® ink effect. Each page highlights beautifully reproduced photos of motorcycling from the early 20th century.

This year the calendar is centered around board track racing. Each month features board track racers, and the people who rode them, in the late teen's and twenty's of the 20th century. With its vintage style and fantastic selection of photos the calendar is sure to make a great gift for any motorcycle enthusiast.
