“GET LOST” with J&P Cycles® and Knight’s Farm... and raise some green for Camp Courageous

For Immediate Release - Sept 24, 2007

J&P Cycles is proud to announce their latest fundraiser for Camp Courageous of Iowa. In conjunction with Knight’s Farm in Springville, IA, J&P Cycles® is hoping to raise some extra funds this fall for its favorite charity. The corn maze at Knight’s farm this year will be donning the theme “Let’s Ride” with J&P Cycles® widely known winged logo. The maze will be open to the public from September 29th through October 31, 2007 and a special Donation Box will be set up right outside the maze courtesy of J&P. 100% of the donations collected in the box will go to Camp Courageous!! Knight’s Farm owner Gary Knight approached J&P® in June about planting his yearly corn maze around a J&P® /motorcycle theme. Knight’s Farm has a proud history of working with local businesses on special events, and J&P was thrilled at the chance to get involved and quickly began working on the design. Ideas were bounced back and forth with J&P® Marketing Manager Tom Hines and the idea to also raise funds for the camp quickly emerged.

“We are very excited to be part of this great fall event,” said Hines. “The corn maze is a special Iowa tradition and we are honored to be chosen to work with Gary. The large motorcycle riding population around eastern Iowa brings a lot of people to J&P® this time of year. We knew we could help spread the word and not only get people to the farm to see Gary’s amazing work, but do something to give back to the community as well. We immediately thought of raising some money for our favorite charity, Camp Courageous.” Gary was thrilled with the idea of supporting the camp and can’t wait to see how much the maze can raise!

Admission to Knight’s farm is $ 6 dollars per person. Admission includes unlimited access to the corn maze, pumpkin patch, unlimited hayrack rides, children’s petting zoo, bee display, farm fresh produce, picnic pavilion and more, so a visit to Knight’s farm is a great way to spend the day with the family! The special Camp Courageous donation box and display will be set up at the entrance of the corn maze, and 100% of the donations collected throughout the month will go to Camp Courageous.

“We hope everyone will come out and enjoy the maze this month, and also help us support Camp Courageous,” said J&P Cycles Vice-president Jill Parham. “ We are so lucky to have an organization like Camp Courageous right here in Eastern Iowa and we need to do everything possible to keep it going, and growing.”
